5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy

Dear Parishioners:

We begin a new Church Year with the Season of Advent upon us. It is a time of preparation for Christmas as we remember the First Coming of the Son of God. We also prepare in anticipation for the Second Coming of Christ at the end of time.

St. Bernard of Clairvaux says: "We know that the coming of the Lord is threefold. The first coming was in flesh and weakness, the middle coming is in spirit and power, and the final coming will be in glory and majesty."

St. Bernard explains that The First Coming was Jesus' birth at Bethlehem. The Second Coming is the Spiritual coming to each believer. And the Third Coming is Jesus coming again at the world's end.

This "middle" coming is Jesus' arrival into our own lives. The Church often explains this through the sacraments, particularly through Baptism and the Holy Eucharist. It is not a "physical" coming but a spiritual one, where Christ comes to dwell within our souls. Each Advent, we are challenged to prepare for all three comings of Christ, celebrating his birth and preparing our hearts to receive him now and at the end of time.

As we begin the new Church Year, we can look back over the last year at his coming. Each year, we submit the Status Animarum report to the Bishop. This "State of Souls" is a report on our parish's spiritual and sacramental life. All parishes submit this report, and then the Bishop submits one final report of the entire diocese to the Holy Father in Rome.

The Status animarum at Our Lady of Mercy Parish reports that we are a parish of 1,812 families with just about 600 actively supporting the parish. We had twenty-seven baptisms, sixty-one children made First Communion, and fifty-four young adults were Confirmed. There were just five weddings. Sadly, we had fifty-one parishioners who died and for whom we celebrated funerals.

Included in the bulletin this week is a copy of the Annual Financial Report that was approved by the Parish Finance Council, Parish Trustees, and the Parish Auditors. The report indicates we are financially viable and on good fiscal ground.

However, it reports a $45,000 decrease in our weekly budget collection last year. This is attributed to the death of a few very generous parishioners and a decline in support by many families since the COVID-19 pandemic.

Our expenses are up due to the increased utilities, insurance, and supplies costs. Also, our diocesan assessment increased by $10,000. However, the subsidy to the school was reduced by $28,000 due to an increase of twenty-six new students enrolled at OLM School.

Our 'State of the Souls' and Annual Financial Report highlight the facts and figures of parish life, both the spiritual and the fiscal. There is a decline in the spiritual life and the financial support of our parish since the pandemic. Many Catholics in general and many OLM parishioners in particular have not returned to the regular practice of the faith.

In a recent Wall Street Journal article, Lockdown Turned to Boycott in Our House: Once interrupted, the habits of religious worship can be hard to re-establish, the paper's deputy editorial features editor, Matthew Hennesey, comments on the effect of the pandemic lockdown on his family's attendance at Sunday Mass.

He writes about his 17-year-old daughter, who has Down syndrome. She now refuses to go to Sunday Mass. He explains that during the lockdown when public Mass was stopped during the pandemic, his family did what many did: watch the livestream Sunday Mass.

However, transitioning back to regular attendance at Sunday Mass has been a challenge or, as he described it, a "spiritual disaster" for his family. His experience is very common among our Catholic families across the country. He comments: "Attendance at my parish has since rebounded modestly. It isn't anywhere near pre-pandemic levels."

As we begin this new church year in this Advent, may it be a time of hopeful, joyful, and prayerful renewal for our parish family. Pray those who have drifted away from parish life may return. If you know them, invite them to come back to Sunday Mass. Prepare the way for the coming of Christ. Do good. Be well. God Bless.

Father Healey

Traditional Catholic Advent Prayer

Awaiting Baby Jesus

My heart is beating, filled with joy, awaiting Mary's Baby Boy. For with this Child, we embrace the birth of God's most precious grace. Baby Jesus, soon to come! For us comes the Promised One. Baby Jesus, God's own Son, Thou will be the Chosen One to lead Thy flock unto salvation. Our eternal life awaits. The birth of Jesus brings us nearer Heaven's Holy Gates. Sing with joy and count the days, for soon to come, the Lord we'll praise. Rejoice that Jesus will soon arrive, the Messiah and our faith alive. Amen

Our Lady of Guadalupe

EACH DECEMBER 12 the Catholic Church honors Our Lady of Guadalupe. The feast recalls the day in 1531 when the Mexican peasant Juan Diego Cuauhtlatoatzin, having seen a vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Tepeyac, yet having been rebuffed by the local bishop, obeyed Mary's command to pluck the roses that were impossibly growing in the rocky land during December. Bundling the flowers within his outer garment, Juan Diego returned to the bishop and opened his tilma to show the miracle of the roses. Then, to the wonderment of them both, the roses falling to the floor revealed an imprint of Our Lady on the very garment that bore the miraculous flowers.

Devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe has spread throughout Mexico, Latin America, North America, and the world. Her image adorns churches, homes, meeting rooms, places of business, cars, and clothes. The tilma itself remains on display at a basilica in Mexico City, where it is the object of intense devotion. Although the date is not a holyday of obligation on the Church's calendar, it is practically observed that way among the Hispanic population.

Ceremonies in parishes typically include a Mass, a serenade of devotional music addressed to the Virgin, a theatrical presentation of the story of Juan Diego, and the lively dancing of matachines to the loud accompaniment of drums, all honoring the power and love of Mary, especially her concern for the poor and the lowly.

In years when December 12 falls on a Sunday, the Mass is that of the Third Sunday of Advent, but it is still appropriate for those devoted to Our Lady of Guadalupe to include music, devotions, petitions, and preaching that commemorate this important day.

PRAYER FOR THE UNBORN CHILDREN TO OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion.
Help expectant parents to welcome from God the priceless gift of their child's life. Console parents who have lost that gift through abortion, and lead them to forgiveness and healing
through the Divine Mercy of your Son. Teach us to cherish and to care for family and friends until God calls them home.
Help us never to see
others as burdens.
Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself.
AMEN.
