Dear Parishioners:

We had two great celebrations on St. Patrick's Day and St. Joseph's Day last week. I am grateful to Bishop John Noonan from Orlando for coming to OLM to celebrate the St. Patrick's Day Mass on March 17th. He did a fantastic job, and the Mass was beautiful and joyful. I hope you attended and enjoyed it, as well as the Irish Soda Bread and Coffee with Baileys Irish Cream!

We are grateful to our Coadjutor Bishop Richard G. Henning, who concelebrated the St. Patrick's Day Mass and then came back to celebrate the St. Joseph's Day Mass in Italian. What a great way to welcome our new Bishop with two great celebrations. We thank him for his presence at our parish and look forward to welcoming him to OLM again.

I thank the many people who helped make the celebrations joyful and festive. Our readers, Sinead Campion, who read in Irish on St. Patrick's Day, and Doctors Rocky Ruggiero and Anthony Bruzzese, who read in Italian on St. Joseph's Day. The music at both Masses was beautiful. We thank our OLM Music Director Henri St. Louis and all the musicians who joined him.

These two great celebrations are a mere prelude to the celebrations of Holy Week, which begins next week. Another fantastic event at OLM is our Annual Living Stations of the Cross, performed by our OLM Middle School. It is this Friday, March 31st, at 1:00 pm and 7:00 pm. It is a very powerful dramatic presentation of the Stations of the Cross. It is a beautiful way to prepare for Holy Week prayerfully, so mark your calendars and plan on attending.

St. Teresa of Avila said, "Let us look to the cross and be filled with peace, knowing that Christ has walked this road and walks it now with us and all our brothers and sisters."

Next weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday. Palm Sunday is the final Sunday of Lent, the beginning of Holy Week, and commemorates the triumphant arrival of Christ in Jerusalem, days before he was crucified.

Palm Branches are to be blessed at all Masses. There will be a procession before 10:30 am Mass from Mercy Park. We ask all attending the 10:30 am Mass to gather at Mercy Park before the Mass. Holy Week commences with our celebration of Palm Sunday.

Also, our Mass schedule changes next Saturday as the 4:00 pm Saturday Evening Mass moves to a 5:00 pm start time. Confessions on Saturday afternoon move from a 3:00 pm start time to 4:00 pm. Be sure to plan accordingly.

This weekend we had All-Day Confessions on Saturday from 9:00 am until 3:00 pm with dozens of priests helping hear Confessions. We thank them for their priestly service in helping with this important day. We also thank the many volunteers who assisted the hundreds of people coming to OLM for Confession. If you have not yet made a good Confession, plenty of opportunity is left to do so before Easter.

Saint Pope John XXIII

taught: "Doing penance for one's sins is a first step towards obtaining forgiveness and winning eternal salvation. That is the clear and explicit teaching of Christ. No one can fail to see how justified and right the Catholic Church has always been in constantly insisting on this. She is the spokesman for her divine Redeemer. No individual Christian can grow in perfection, nor can Christianity gain in vigor, except on penance."

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday as we prayerfully proclaim the Passion of our Lord at all the Masses. St. Paul of the Cross said: "The remembrance of the most holy Passion of Jesus Christ is the door through which the soul enters into intimate union with God, interior recollection and most sublime contemplation."

As we anticipate the holiest time of the year and the celebration of Holy Week, may we do so with a prayerful recollection and contemplation of our Lord's Passion. On Palm Sunday, please return your donations for the CRS Rice Bowl Collection. It's always helpful if you strike a check or use bills instead of coins!

The Holy Week Schedule is in the bulletin. However, Lent does not officially end until the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday evening. So continue praying, fasting, and giving alms. Hope to see you at the Living Stations of the Cross on Friday. Be well. Stay safe. Do good. God Bless!

Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord
Swedish Waffles

On March 25 each year, exactly nine months before the great joy of the birth of Jesus on Christmas Day, the Church celebrates The Annunciation of the Lord. On this day, the angel Gabriel appeared to our Blessed Mother and announced that she was to conceive and bear a son, our Lord Jesus Christ. The beauty of this solemnity is held in Mary's great fiat, or yes, in her willingness to play an essential role in the world's salvation. Unlike Eve who disobeyed God, Mary said yes to God's plan for her. She trusted God and, as the mother of Jesus, loved Him in a way no one else could. At the moment of the angel's words, Mary carried within her womb the Son of God, the Messiah, the Savior of the world. The Annunciation is celebrated each year in Sweden by partaking in waffles! But why waffles? The Swedish feast's name is Vårfrudagen ("Our Lady's Day"). The feast's name resembles the Swedish pun Våffeldagen (Waffle Day). Thus, the pun has engendered a national devotion to the Virgin as far back as the 17th century. Despite being predominantly Lutheran, Sweden celebrates this Feast Day of Mary with wonderful feasts of waffles.

Ingredients

- 1 3/4 cups heavy cream, well-chilled
- 1 1/3 cups flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- Pinch of salt
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 3 tablespoons melted sweet butter

Instructions

Step 1 - Whip the cream until stiff. Step 2 - Mix the flour, sugar, and salt in a bowl. Step 3 - Stir in the water to make a smooth batter. Step 4 - Fold the whipped cream into the batter. Step 5 - Stir in the melted butter. Step 6 - Heat the waffle iron. (If it is well seasoned, it will not need to be greased.) Step 7 - Fill the grid surface about two-thirds full of batter. Bake until golden brown. Step 8 - Place on a rack to keep crisp while you make the rest of the waffles. Yield: about 8 waffles. These are perfect for dessert to celebrate this Solemnity. Especially when served with whipped Cream and raspberries
